The ADRK German Championship IPO in 2015 was held on 3-4 October in Borken-Burlo in the National Group Westfalen. The district Borken-Burlo Group had the event very well-organized. Everything was well-prepared: good track area, very beautiful sports facility, and very good care of participants and spectators. On both days, there was great weather with temperatures around 20° celsius with no rain—perfect conditions for a beautiful championship. This year, 45 teams qualified, of which 41 teams were present at the start. During the event, two teams were lost due to injury and one team was unfortunately disqualified in protection work.

The tracking judge was Rüdiger Schmidt from the National Group Westfalen. The track area was dirt farmland. Tracking was actually very demanding. In the track, following predicates could be forgiven. Tracking statistics: Excellent: 9, Very Good: 17, Good: 7, Satisfactory: 3, Deficient: 5

Twice the highest score of 100 was awarded: G. Dietrich with Emilio v Tanneneck, and the only youth handler, Laura Mastenbrock with Gregi v Nürnberger Land.

The obedience judge was the world renowned and experienced judge Roland Seibel. Roland judged fairly, and in my view, at a high level. Only fully operating and joyfully correct working dogs had the chance to come at all close to a "Very Good" rating. That, to me, is addressed contemporary and modern!

Many dog handlers did not have their dogs at present in a position to do justice to these requirements. Unfortunately, an "Excellent" rating in obedience could not be awarded in this championship. The "Very Good" rating was assigned only five times in these two days.

Obedience statistics: Excellent: 0, Very Good: 5, Good: 19, Satisfactory: 15, Deficient: 1

Protection judge Richard Berning from the National Group Westfalen taught very convincing and understandable. He attached great importance to impressive work at convincing grip performance and high tractability of dogs. These requirements were hard for many dogs to do justice to and they seemed partly overstrained. The audience had to wait until the penultimate event before finally an "Excellent" rating was awarded. I have to say that no one really had expected more in the stadium!

L-R: 2nd place—Peter Baum with Amigo v Sittard;
1st place & German Champion IPO of ADRK 2015—Rainer Dersch with Bambam vh Imp Houses;
3rd place—Gerhard Diedrich with Emilio v Tanneneck

The team of Harald Bauer with his Ando of the Quant (Arras aus der Puppenstube son) could convince with high impulse and willingness to work, full hard grips, and almost perfect tractability. The team received the highest score in protection work: 98V.

Helpers in protection work were Mario Bobrowski, Fabian Uebbing, and replacement Tim Werner. Mario Bobrowski incited very safe, confident, and on both days, in my view fair and convincing. Fabian Uebbing seemed to me overwhelmed and technically still not perfect on both days. He was partly motivated by and saw some dogs, but worse than they perhaps were.

Protection work statistics: Excellent: 1, Very Good: 12, Good: 18, Satisfactory: 7, Disqualified: 1

German Champion 2015: Rainer Dersch with Bambam vd Wichtelhäusern (Female)
96/93/95 = 284 Very Good

Second Place: Peter Baum with Amigo v Sittard
97/88/94 = 279 Very Good

Third Place: Gerhard Dietrich with Emilio v Tanneneck
100/88/90 = 278 Very Good

The next ADRK IPO Championship will be held on October 1-2, 2016 in the National Group Niedersachsen (BG Wolfenbüttel).
